How to be ready for the biggest life event
(Mark 13:24-37)

Intro.

During the course of life, we experience some big, memorable events...such as weddings, funerals, and milestone birthday parties... And big events usually require great preparation.

Today's passage reveals the biggest life event for all of us: The 2nd coming of Christ. Yet the sad reality is that, many Christians, are spending this present time without a clue of this coming event and are therefore unprepared.

For this reason, today's sermon aims to makes us aware of this event, and also leads us to be ready for this coming event.

1. What this event is about
    - The Son of Man coming in glory

        i. A day of final judgment

        ii. A day of great salvation

2. The imminent nature, and certainty of this event.

3. How we can be ready for this coming event.
